

CREED OF ROYALTY

I am a son of God Almighty, the Father.

He desires to love me, pour out His blessings on me, and give me more than I can contain.
I become more like my Father when I meditate on the things of God and dream His dreams.

He has forgiven me and has given me the power to forgive.

My Father's kingdom is not a performance-based kingdom.

I cannot earn His love; He loves me freely.

When I focus on His truths, the Holy Spirit empowers me.

As a prince in my Father's kingdom, I will focus on who I am called to be.

Jesus Christ is my defender.

The enemy has been defeated.

Death has lost its power.

Jesus is King.

All hail King Jesus for He is faithful and true.

Through the blood of Jesus I can live in freedom and forgiveness as if I have never sinned.

I do not have to think about darkness, discouragement or failure.

My Father finds me good enough through the blood of Jesus.

My God will never leave or forsake me.

I did not receive a spirit that makes me a slave again to fear, but I received the Spirit of sonship. Nothing will be able to separate me from the Love of God that is in Christ Jesus my Lord.

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom, and I belong with the Spirit.

I am valuable.

I am good enough.

I am truly, deeply loved by my Father.

I will spend eternity with Him for He is mine, and I am His.
